THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE N.V.RAMANA

Writ Petition No.27969 of 2005

Dated:21st April, 2006

Between:

Habeeb Ali.

…..PETITIONER

AND

The Depot Manager, A.P.S.R.T.C,

Zaheerabad Depot, Medak District.

….RESPONDENT

THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE

N.V.RAMANA

W.P.No.27969 of 2006

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed assailing the proceedings of the respondent-Depot Manager, Zaheerabad Depot, Medak District in proceedings No.01/2 (1)/90-ZHB, dated 2-1-1991 by which the petitioner who is a Driver was imposed a major punishment of deferment of annual increment for a period of two years with cumulative effect, without conducting any enquiry.

The operative portion of the impugned order of the respondent reads thus:

> "Therefore I hereby order that the annual Increment of Sri. Habeed Ali, E.250642, Driver of Zaheerabad Depot now working At Sangareddy Depot is hereby deferred for a period of Two Years which will have its effect on his future increments besides treating the period of suspension as "LEAVE DUE."

It is the case of the petitioner that he is working as Driver at respondent-Depot and the respondent issued a charge-sheet dated 02-02-1990 on the allegation that due to rash and negligent driving of the petitioner accident occurred which amounts to serious misconduct. It is the further case of the petitioner that proceedings of the respondent-Depot Manager, Zaheerabad Depot, Medak District in proceedings No.01/2 (1)/90-ZHB, dated 2-1-1991 imposing punishment of deferment of annual increment for a period of two years with cumulative effect is a major punishment and cannot be imposed without conducting departmental enquiry and such imposition is contrary to law and contrary to the Judgment of the Supreme court in Kulwanth Singh Gill v. State of Punjab , and due to such major punishment the petitioner is facing much financial problems as he is drawing less salary.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the impugned order as well as the Judgment of this Court in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005.

Admittedly, the respondent without conducting departmental enquiry imposed the penalty of stoppage of annual increment for a period of two years, with cumulative effect on the basis of the charges leveled against the petitioner which is a major penalty as is held by this Court in a similar matter in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005 following the Judgment of the Supreme Court in Kulwanth Singh Gill v. State of Punjab. The order of the Single Judge in a similar matter was confirmed by the Division Bench of this Court in W.A.No.340 of 2006 by order dated 10-4-2006. The operative portion of the judgment in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005 reads thus:

> "In the ordinary course of things, the impugned order needs to be set aside, leaving it open to the respondent to pass fresh orders. To avoid further delay and complication in the matter, this court is of the view that the impugned order can be treated, as the one for stoppage of annual increment, without cumulative effect.
>
> Hence, the writ petition is partly allowed, directing that the order dated

16-11-1993, passed by the respondent, shall be treated as the one for stoppage of annual increment, for a period of six months, without cumulative effect, and that the petitioner shall not be entitled for any monetary benefits up to the date of this order. There shall be no order as to costs."

In the above view of the matter, this writ petition is disposed of in terms of the judgment of this Court in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005 directing the respondents as under.

The respondent is directed to treat the impugned order in proceedings No.01/2 (1)/90-ZHB, dated 2-1-1991 as the one for stoppage of annual increment, for a period of two years without cumulative effect, and that the petitioner shall not be entitled for any monetary benefits up to the date of this order. No costs.
